Biography

Nazgol Nayeri (born in 1990, Tehran, Iran) began learning to paint when she was 9 years old. After graduating high school with a diploma in graphics in 2008, she studied painting at AL Zahra University in Tehran and earned a bachelor's degree in painting in 2013. She started her professional career from 2010, participating in several exhibitions.
Her abstract paintings are inspired by Persian poetry and nature, exploring the relationship between color, emotion, and the inner experience of the world. Nayeri currently lives and works in Tehran.
